

Dr. Stephen Gitahi Njuru

Position: Lecturer

Title: Doctor

Department: Econometrics and Statistics

Contact Address: P.O. Box 43844 , 00100 Nairobi

Stephen Gitahi Njuru is a Lecturer in the Department of Econometrics and Statistics. He teaches in Kenyatta University Main and Satellite Campuses. He holds a Master of Arts (2004) and Doctorate degree in Economics (2013) from Kenyatta University. He also holds a Bachelor of Education Arts (Business Studies & Economics) Degree from Kenyatta University (2001). Dr. Gitahi joined Kenyatta University in 2008 as a Tutorial Fellow. He has also worked with International University of Professional Studies as lecturer and was deputy head of Business Studies department. He has accumulated a lot of experience in university teaching and Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture, St. Paul University, K.C.A and Kabarak University are some of institutions that have benefited from him.

Area of Specialization

1. Public Sector Economics
2. Investment
3. Statistics
4. Econometrics

Publications

1. Determinants of Private in Kenya (1970 – 2001).
2. Effects of Fiscal Policy on Private in Kenya (1963 – 2011)
3. Taxation and Private Investment: Evidence for Kenya
4. Impact of Government Expenditure on Private Investment in Kenya
5. Impact of Monetary Policy on Economic Growth in Kenya